World-class cockpit seat repair shop

Enhancing pilot comfort and flight safety

A seat is to a pilot what a throne is to a king, encompassing critical dimensions of flying - providing comfort for pilots and crews during long flight hours, and ensuring safety by making control mechanisms and cockpit panels accessible to pilots.

When these essential components of an aircraft cabin suffer damage, you need a partner that's got you covered. That's us. With more than 1,500 Boeing and Airbus cockpit seat repaired and counting, we have established solid expertise in cockpit seat repair. Furthermore, holding an EASA Design Organization Approval 21J, we possess extensive capabilities to craft customized repair solutions for each customer, ultimately enabling us to offer the swiftest turnaround times out there at the most competitive prices.
